

TRIASSIC 251

MILLION YEARS AGO

North America and Michigan were still part of the supercontinent Pangea. Michigan's climate was subtropical and probably dry. Life recovered on earth after the Permian Mass Extinction. Dinosaurs first appeared in the Triassic Period.